

I urge you to reject the proposed change in broadcast station ownership limits. I believe that reducing the number of broadcast station owners will reduce jobs, rather than create new jobs, and thus be detrimental to our economy. Also, it would reduce the diversity of opinion expressed via news media, and limit local access for public safety announcements during emergencies.

Sincerely,

Justin Snow